Welcome to the TWA Retired Pilots Association Website
Let us explain who we are, and what we do.

WHO — Membership in TWA RETIRED PILOTS ASSOCIATION is open to any Cockpit Crew Member, past or present, of TWA and any acquired, acquiring or merged Airlines, such as Ozark, America West, PSA, Piedmont, American, Allegheny, US Airways, etc. of the "Old" TWA. Our approximately 900 members range from young current TWA/AA pilots to some who flew Ford Tri-Motors in the '30s.

WHAT — TARPA was founded in 1979 by retired TWA pilots who wanted to create an organization to provide a social, recreational and non-profit entity with a primary goal of helping members maintain friendships formed while flying for TWA and to assist pilots nearing retirement with the transition to the new life. In September 2015, the Association's name was changed to: TWA Retired Pilots Association.

HOW — We offer several ways to reach our objective. First, we publish a world class, widely acclaimed magazine "TWA TOPICS" and it is produced twice a year. TWA TOPICS contains stories about members' current and past activities, stories about TWA and industry issues, and updates on "Association" activities. We also publish a membership directory, bi-annually, containing addresses, Email addresses, and telephone numbers of all members and subscribers. Second, perhaps most important, we convene an annual
